LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

1. Demonstrate an understanding of person-centred care that recognises and respects the uniqueness of each individual.
2. Describe the characteristics and qualities of caring interactions in a variety of contexts.
3. Apply an informed problem-solving approach to provide care and service.
4. Describe care planning as a problem-solving process.
5. Demonstrate common practices for reporting and recording in community and facility settings.

6. Explain factors affecting the safety and protection of self and others within a variety of work environments:

COURSE FORMAT:

This course will consist of lectures, group work, learning activities, and may include guest speakers and other methods to optimise learning.

The format for each class will include:

- Opportunity for questions on previous material
- Introduction and integration of new material

ASSESSMENTS

All evaluative components for this course are mandatory and must be completed satisfactorily (minimum 50%) in order to receive a passing mark.

Missing or incomplete components will result in a course grade assessment of “Fail”

Late Assignments/Work: For every day an assignment is late (after assigned due date) 5% will be deducted from the original paper grade.

- No assignment will be accepted more than one week (7 calendar days) following the due date unless arrangements are made with instructor of that specific course in advance of due date. Assignments not handed in one week after due date will receive a 0 (failing) grade.

Attendance & Participation

10%

Attendance means being at class on time every day, prepared for the class and participating to the end of the class. If you cannot be at class, you must notify the instructor in advance and you must arrange to get the class notes and information from your classmates. You are responsible for the information and materials of every class.

Participation includes your active involvement in the activities of the classroom and completion of assignments, reading, quizzes, etc. Coming to class regularly, being on time, being prepared for the class, speaking up in class and handing in your assignments when due will contribute greatly to your success.

Yukon College Attendance Policy 4.01 states “Students in all program areas are expected to attend classes and will be informed of any specific attendance requirements for their course by their instructors at the beginning of the term.

The following attendance requirements apply to all students:

- Admission to a lecture or laboratory may be refused by the instructor due to lateness or misconduct and students who do not attend classes or submit assignments as required may be refused admission to further classes;
- Where a student is enrolled in multiple courses with overlapping timetables the instructors may adjust attendance requirements;

Assignments

Analysis of Caring in a book

30%

The assignment will be a description of the caring or uncaring acts you identify in a book from a list provided. The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate your insights into the aspects of caring that are evident in the book. Both positive and negative examples will be evident in the books and you are expected to discuss both. The assignment will be a written report (approx 1000 words) either typed (computer) or legibly hand written.

Evidence of Learning

30%

These 5 written assignments will encompass various aspects of the course content and required readings and are an opportunity for you to demonstrate your learning around each topic. Each assignment should be 1 -2 typewritten pages (approximately 500 words per page). Handwritten work is acceptable.

Problem solving, care planning, safety scenario

30%

This group assignment provides an opportunity to demonstrate your knowledge and skills in using a systematic approach to problem solving, care planning, safety, and community resources, within a caring framework.

INSTRUCTIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

This course will be taught by a Registered Nurse with knowledge & experience in both education and the content area. Other qualifications may be considered.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Plagiarism occurs when students present the words of someone else as their own. Plagiarism can be the deliberate use of a whole piece of another person's writing, but more frequently it occurs when students fail to acknowledge and document sources from which they have taken material. Whenever the words, research or ideas of others are directly quoted or paraphrased, they must be documented according to an accepted manuscript style (e.g., APA, CSE, MLA, etc.). Resubmitting a paper which has previously received credit is also considered plagiarism. Students who plagiarize material for assignments will receive a mark of zero (F) on the assignment and may fail the course. Plagiarism may also result in dismissal from a program of study or the College.

YUKON FIRST NATIONS CORE COMPETENCY

Yukon College recognizes that a greater understanding and awareness of Yukon First Nations history, culture and journey towards self-determination will help to build positive relationships among all Yukon citizens. As a result, to graduate from ANY Yukon College program, you will be required to achieve core competency in knowledge of Yukon First Nations. For details, please see www.yukoncollege.yk.ca/yfnccr.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

Reasonable accommodations are available for students requiring an academic accommodation to fully participate in this class. These accommodations are available for students with a documented disability, chronic condition or any other grounds specified in section 8.0 of the Yukon College Academic Regulations (available on the Yukon College website). It is the student's responsibility to seek these accommodations. If a student requires an academic accommodation, he/she should contact the Learning Assistance Centre (LAC) at (867) 668-8785 or lassist@yukoncollege.yk.ca.
